

Encouraging People Toward A Better Life

Eric Norman

Eric Norman, Ed.D. – Serves as the Dean of Students at Indiana University Purdue University Fort Wayne (IPFW). He is responsible for Child Care, Conduct, Counseling, Crises remediation, and Services for Students with Disabilities. Previously, Eric was the Associate Dean of Students & Director of Student Advocacy and Accountability at LSU. In this role, he was responsible for adjudicating all violations of the LSU Code of Student Conduct, which includes academic and nonacademic referrals, as well as the coordination of the CARE Team. He has also worked as the Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life at Virginia Tech, and as the Assistant Director for Fraternities, Sororities, Registered Student Organizations, & Leadership at the University of Delaware. While at Virginia Tech, he was an Affiliated Adjunct Professor in the Higher Education program. He is a former Division I and III collegiate swim coach and community counselor.